Musical Talent Finds Outlet Here at West

If you have a musical inclination (and even if you don't), then you have plenty of opportunity to exploit your talents here at West through the Music department. Throughout the year several groups of musicians perform for the pleasure of their audience and the glory of their God.

Mrs. Schmidt was the sole instructor, conductor, and coordinator for such groups as The Concert Choir, The Mixed Chorus, The Concert Band, The Pep Band, and the Instrumental Techniques group. Long hours of work and plenty of practicing go into the various times these groups entertain. The intensity and the improvement of each individual is obvious each time.

The intensity shows in Miss Schmidt's face.

The soprano section practices for perfect pitch.

Clarinets as far as the eye can see.

S. Trionfi continues to keep at it despite the long hours.

Mr. Becker put in his two cents worth once in awhile.

The two publications at West work very hard throughout the year to bring our newspaper — the Leopard and our yearbook — the Aureole.

The Aureole staff is made up of diligent workers who are interested in the successful completion of the yearbook. The staff is headed by Brad Heintz. He puts in long hard hours in the task of completing this publication on time. Another hard worker is teacher/advisor Mr. Nelson. This year he made several changes in the yearbook. One of these changes is the date of delivery. It makes it a lot nicer for everyone to get their yearbooks in May at the end of school rather than waiting until November of the year after. Mr. Weier was also extremely helpful in organizing and working with the photographic aspect of this publication.

The Leopard staff faces the task of putting out four issues a year. This year's staff, lead by editor Kathy Tonn, was larger than previous years. They have been able to successfully publish the every day accurances at West under their teacher/advisor Mr. Staschke.

Creative Talents Have An Outlet At West

DRAMA CLUB: Standing - N. Schoenfeld. Row 1 - S. Craw, J. Brown, A. Fischer, K. Schmidt, L. Maisano, T. Tatum, L. Washington, R. Rivera, S. McCanham, J. Strassner, J. Hoag. Row 2 - C. Yolton, J. Van Steinberg, M. Fee, M. Haas, K. Goetze, J. Moore, P. Johnson, P. Johnson, L. Wickman, J. Radtke, K. Stahlbush, T. Gerring, M. Craw, J. Johnson. Row 3 - D. Hermanson, J. Wallace, S. Salo, J. Dubensky, L. Archbold, K. Bird, J. Wallace, S. Terry, B. Sherman, R. Poindexter.

The creative talents of our students can be shown through the accomplishments of the Art Club and the Drama Club this year.

Drama Club members work long and hard hours with various aspects of theatre produced here at West. Actors and actresses, lighting, make-up, set construction and even directing are some of the activities the members of our Drama Club engage in throughout the year. If you think all this activity sounds like fun — it is! If you think it all sounds easy — think again. It takes a bit of skill, a little talent, and a good deal of dedication to be a member of our Drama Club here at West.

The Art Club is an informal group of students willing to spend some time after school to further enhance their creative talents and improve the school's appearance at the same time. This year's main project was a mural for the Art room. The end result is very impressive.

Drama Club members always have fun despite the work involved.

A. Scherer and H. Schultz didn't always keep the paint on the walls.

A. Scherer, H. Schultz, and J. Bruenger begin their second day of creative collaboration.

K. Sims seems to be enjoying the attention J. Wallace and C. Yolton are giving him.

The National Honor Society is a national organization whose main purpose is to generate enthusiasm for scholarship and academic excellence. Members of NHS are recognized for high GPA and their leadership abilities.

Members of the International Thespian Society are recognized for their excellence and hard work in theatre. One hundred hours of work in dramatic productions are required for Society membership. Thespians are continually active in promoting theatrical in all dramatic productions produced here at West. They also sponsor an annual Dinner Theatre to raise runds for anyone involved in Drama to attend the International Theatre Arts Conference in Muncie Indiana during the summertime.

Latin Club is a way for students to become more familier with the Latin language. They are involved with the Junior Classical League which encourages more in depth study and personal knowledge of the classical world. Latin Club and JCL provides a chance for scholarships and socialization with other students with similar interests.

There are many things at West that we sometimes take for granted. The efficiency of the Media center, the smooth running of the office, the consistant readiness of the worship services are all every-day occurrences thanks to quite a few individuals willing to do a little extra for their school.

All these student helpers give up some of their time to assist in the many tasks that must be performed everyday. Such dedication is hard to come by. Their sacrifice may not always be noticed or praised, but is sincerely appreciated.

A long standing Student Council tradition - Penny Drive.

Helping add to the school spirit, Student Council assist in all Pep assemblies.

This year's Student Council gave a hand to Mrs. Gwaltney with Careers Day.

The 1983-84 Student Council under the leadership of Bobby Meadows, began another year of providing fun and excitement for the student body. The new officers, elected in the Spring of '83 were: Vice-President Jeff Pulter, Secretary Traci Ballard, and Treasurer Dave Berryhill.

Under the supervision of sponsor, Mr. Ruth, the council worked together and produced several successful dances and games nights, assisted with the candy sales and Careers Day, and spearheaded the very successful Charity Week and Hearts for Jesus campaigns. With the election of next year's officers, a wish of much continued success is given for another profitable year.

Keeping the Beat in Perfect Unison

The Hi-Steppers: 3rd row; D. Smith, M. McPhal, C. Laws, Mrs. Gladney, P. Williams, K. Chamblis, M. Sherman. 2nd row; R. Rivera, B. Lee, L. Williams, T. Hudson, A. Ott, K. Bradley. 1st row: M. The 1983-84 Hi-Steppers, lead by captain Sharon Minott, and co-captain Michelle White and sponsors Mrs. Gladney and Miss Brown, began their season by practicing outside in the 90 degree weather of August. In addition they also practiced every day from 3:15-4:00.

Not only did the Hi-Steppers perfect their kicks, turns and dance steps, but they also began every practice with aerobic exercises.

They pleased the high spirited crowds with routines performed with brightly colored pom-pons, gloves, flashlights and even toy guns.

This year the Hi-Steppers worked hard to live up to their reputation and that hard work certainly showed during their performances.

The Secret Behind West's Enthusiasm

The Varsity squad is made up of eight girls in which Lisa Maisano and Kathy Cummer are captain and co-captain respectively. This year three of the girls were cheerleaders for the first time. With such a new squad the girls worked hard in order to be top quality. They led the school spirit with posters, cheers and enthusiasm. Such a squad is hard to come by and should be highly complimented.

The eight girl J.V. squad was lead by captain Kristen Byrd and co-captain Andrea Germaine. Their bright smiles and new snappy cheers led the crowd's spirit as they cheered on the team.

The last squad is the freshman. Six girls were chosen out of 40 girls who tried out. This squad was surely one of the best freshmen squads at Lutheran West. Teamwork, cooperation, and organization were shown as they performed as a squad.

It is necessary to realize that cheerleading is more than glamour and glory. Behind all this are the things that really make a good squad: organization, determination, cooperation, teamwork, and most importantly friendship in Christ. When all else fails and your glory runs thin you still have your bond of friendship.

Cheerleaders aren't always that busy at football games.

The Varsity Cheerleaders: C. Cummer, K. Schmidt, L. Maisano, S. Neil, K. McClure, T. Woods, A. Murphy.

We can work together demonstrates the J.V. and Varsity Cheerleading Squads.

And now a word from our sponsor.

Mr. Palmreuter crowns our 1983 Homecoming Queen, Traci Morgan.

Onlookers watch B. Heintz and B. Meadows attempt to win the "don't squeeze the charmin" contest.

1983 Homecoming Court and escorts: Carol Yolton and John Brown, Kathy Cummer and Tom Starosciak, Sue Schwartz and Randy Blackwood, Lisa Maisano and Jeff Liggett, Stacey Neil and Tom Glick, Julie Bourlier and Mike Petrena. Seated: Traci Morgan and Bobby Meadows.

The theme for the 1983 Homecoming was stay tuned from T.V. slogans. Students showed their spirit by participating in locker and dress up contest. The locker contest was judged by the faculty and found the winners to be Jeff Pulter and Brad Heintz. Dress up week started with the 50's look followed by baby day, twin day, and maroon and white day. Six girls were nominated by the Senior Class to be on the Homecoming Court. They were Julie Boulier, Kathy Cummer, Lisa Maisano, Traci Morgan, Stacia Neil, Susan Schwartz, and Carol Yolton. On Saturday night a semi-formal dance was sponsored by student council in the gym.

"And who said this wasn't going to be fun?" askes D. Dickhudt and J. Liggett.

Students enjoy the socializing at "Homecoming in the forest."

"I'm so glad you asked me to come!" says A. Fischer to T. Zorn.

A Miraculous Fairy Tale

Gretel (J. Wallace) tries desperately to free her brother Hansel (D. Hermanson) from the witche's cage.

Sleeping peacefully from the spell of the witch (E. Archbold) are the two children.

The mean stepmother (R. Rivera) explains the plan to lose the children in the forest to her forlorned husband (J. Hoag).

Working in the rafters can be "enlightening" as demonstrated by J. Dubensky and N. Schoenfeld.

Concentrating solely on her make-up, C. Yolton adds a few finishing touches.

As Gretel opens the forbidden box, the Forest Fairy (C. Yolton) rises to help her.

"Hansel and Gretel" was chosen as this year's Children Theatre production. It was performed on Saturday and Sunday, September 24 and 25. This production was directed by Mr. Young.

Hansel was played by Dave Hermanson and Gretel was portrayed by Joelle Wallace. It was both their first time in a full length production and both did fairly well. The witch, played by Liz Archbold had a really good effect on the kid's in the audience. Others in the cast included: Rosemary Rivera, Carol Yolton, Jeff Hoag, and Angela Lopez.

If the performance had to be summed up in one word, it would be "miraculous." Despite a few problems with the set and schedules, everything went off as scheduled. The directors, cast, crew, and audience were pleased at the outcome.

Gotta Dance!

If you can't find a partner just grab anyone.

Standing around trying to look tough.

Tracy Hudson is Smurfing down.

People don't always dance at dances.

Showing off their Spirit is the group of Leopards.

Mirror balls, flashing lights, slow dances and fast ones too, are just the tip of the iceburg of the things that happen here at Lutheran West.

Speaking of iceburgs, the first dance we have here at West is the Ice Breaker where everyone breaks the ice of unfamiliarity. Next comes the Homecoming Dance where we welcome home alumni and celebrate a victorious football game. When the Christmas season comes around, so does the Christmas Dance. Later on, love is in the air, so we have the King of Hearts Dance, which usually draws quite a few sweethearts. Finally, it is time for the Senior Mixer, where everyone at West gets to say goodbye to the Seniors, and make room for the new ones.

It doesn't matter which dance you came to, whether it would have been the King of Hearts or the Christmas Dance, you would of found Lutheran West students dancing away on the dance floor and enjoying the company of their friends.

Don't Drink The Wine!

"Hey! Who turned off the lights?" asks Dr. Eienstin (J. Dubensky).

Being in Drama Club is a hair raising experience, just ask Michael Fee.

Mr. Gibb (T. Tatum) cautiously receives a glass of deadly wine given to him by Aunt Abby (L. Archbold).

Being in Drama is a blast! (M. Fee)

Returning to the home of his youth, Johnathon (J. Milanowski) raises a glass of powerful wine to his lips.

"Bully, thank you, just bully."

Such was the cry that reverberated through the audience as Lutheran West presented their fall production, "Arsenic and Old Lace." This melodrama concerns two sweet old ladies who help lonely old men by poisoning them with elderberry wine then burying them in the cellar. The two elderly ladies were portrayed by Elizabeth Archbold and Kirsten Goetze. Their nephew Mortimer was played by Barry Sherman. Mr. Nelson puts in an appearance for this production as Teddy Roosevelt.

Behind stage the crew did a wonderful job on the sets designed by Mr. Nelson. The crew for this production consisted of Jeff Johnson, Jenifer Radtke, Lori Wickman and Pam Johnson.

The entire production was very well made and performed. All in all, a very good evening of theatrical entertainment.

Proclaiming His Birth Through Music

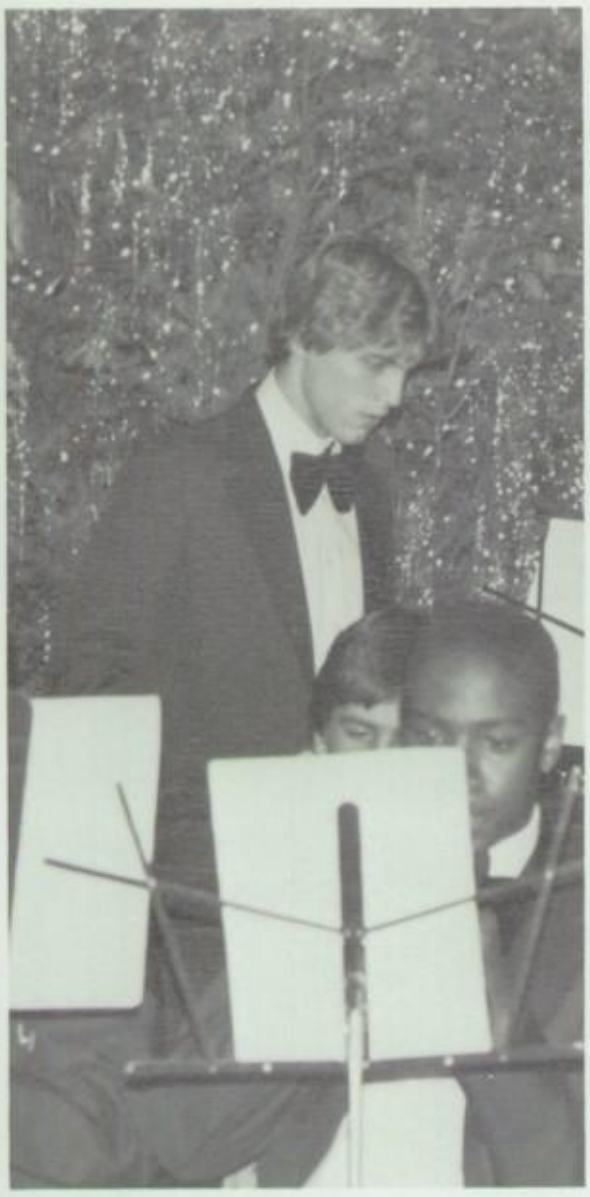
The audience was moved by the inspirational music performed by the LHW musical groups.

What would the Christmas Story be without music? It would still bring the same message across, but with music it makes it a little easier to listen to and sometimes more fun.

This year's Christmas Concert was held at Emmanuel in Dearborn, and there was a well sized crowd there to listen to the beautiful music generated by the wonderful music department here at West. The three groups that performed that evening were the Concert Band, who did a fantastic job, the Mixed Chorus, which showed how it was growing musically, and the Concert Choir, with its King of Love. To end the program there was a sing-along which involved everyone to create a heavenly sound.

Praising God is very important, and the people that are in the choirs and the band are doing just that, praising God. God has gien us all special abilities and these people used theirs and shared it with everyone who came to hear them.

The Concert Choir puts their whole self into glorifying their Lord.



Keeping everyone in the beat is J. Pulter Timpani.

The mixed chorus give it their all.

Accompaniment by R. Dillard and D. Cummins.

Thespians Ham It Up For Two Nights

The Inspector (J. Pulter) suspiciously questions the crew.

Drama nights are always filled with a spirit of theatrical excitement. But what always makes a mid-February weekend special is that dinner is served to compliment this vicarious experience. This year the Dinner and Theatre were very much alike. Both served ham to the satisfaction and delight of the audience.

Leading off the theatrical portion of the evening was a play called "My Cup Runneth Over", directed by Elizabeth Archbold. The play featured Paula a struggling writer played by Karyn Stahlbush and Yucca a newly discovered success in the entertainment field played by Kathy Schmidt.

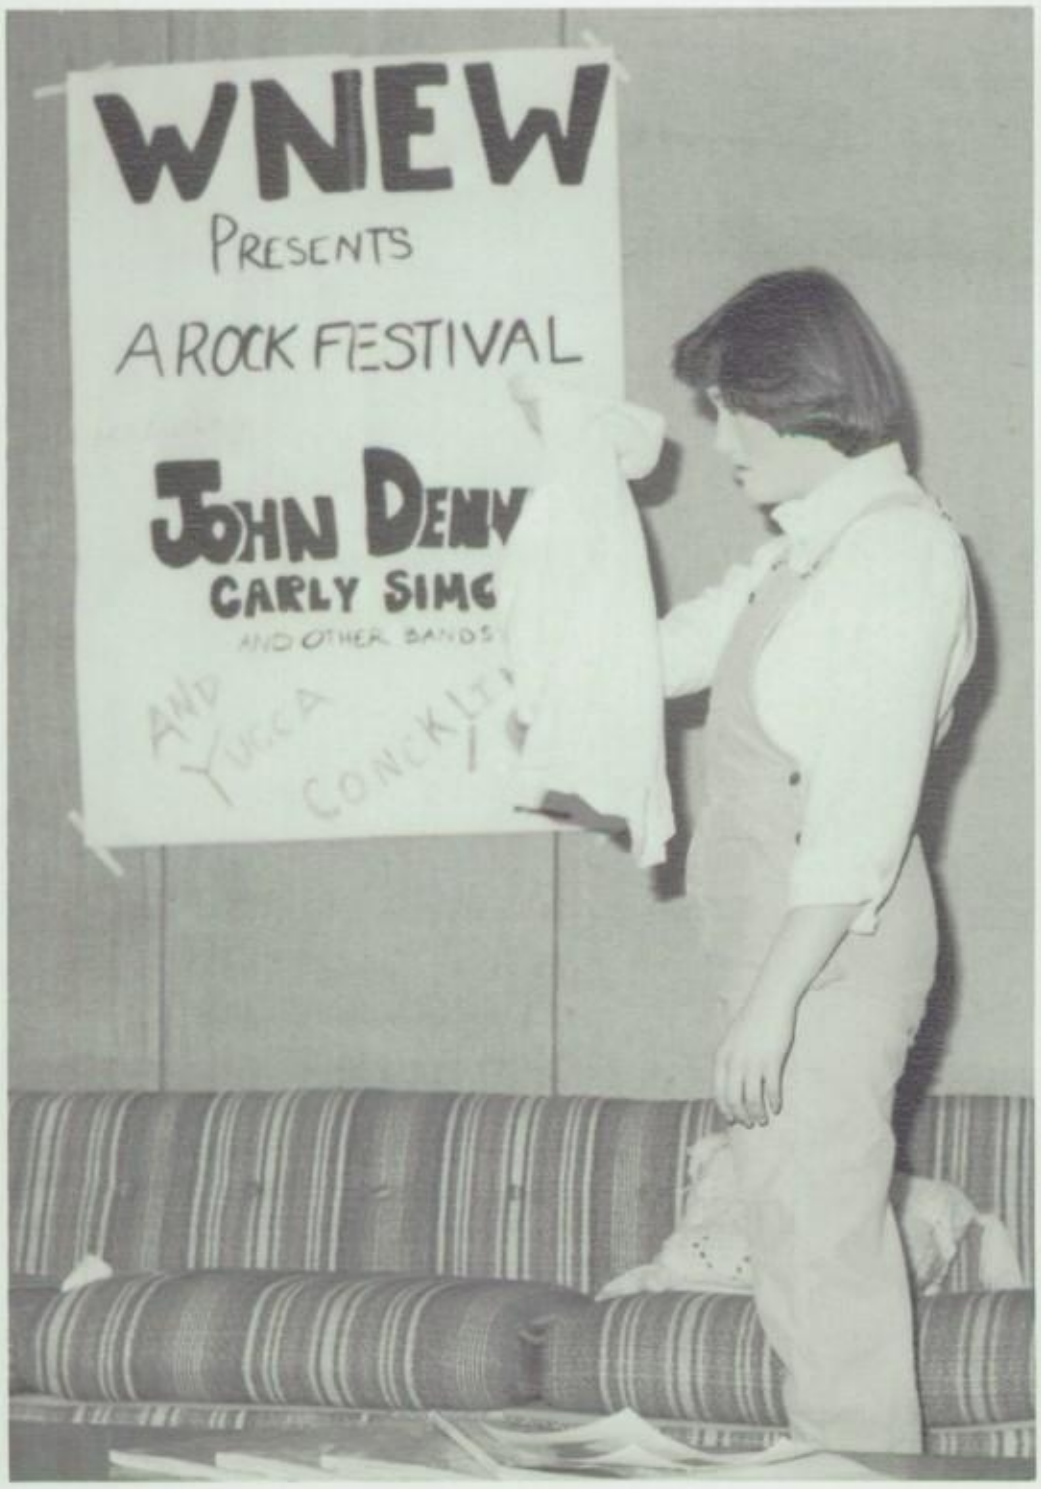
The second play of the evening was called "Murder Well Rehearsed", directed by Barry Sherman. The cast, Daryl Dickhudt, Anne Fisher, Lisa Maisanno, James Wallace, Cathy Bryan and Jeff Pulter lead the audience through a suspensful thriller about a killer in a high school drama production.

With the two talented casts and the delicious meal the annual Thespian Dinner Theatre was another successful evening.

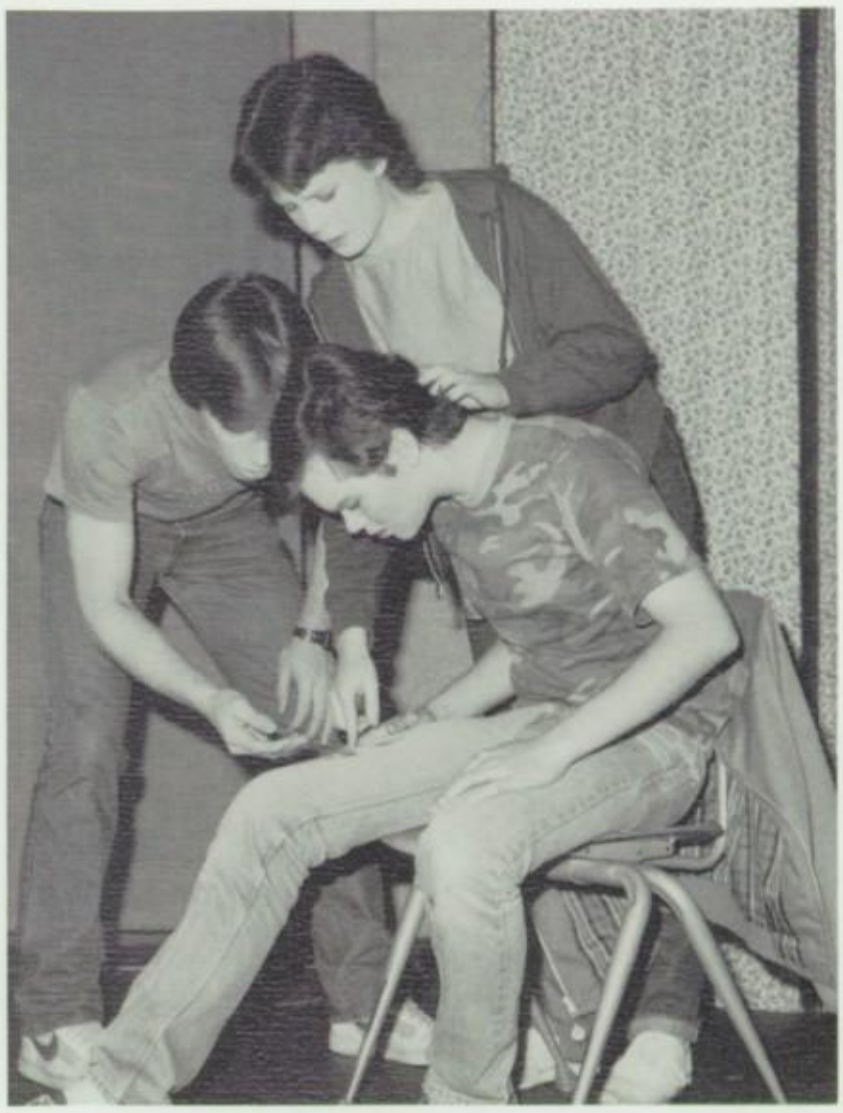
Maybe success doesn't always have to change your best friend.

The students examine the evidence that proves the sleuth is really the killer.

Yucca (K. Schmidt) finds out that success isn't all its cracked up to be.

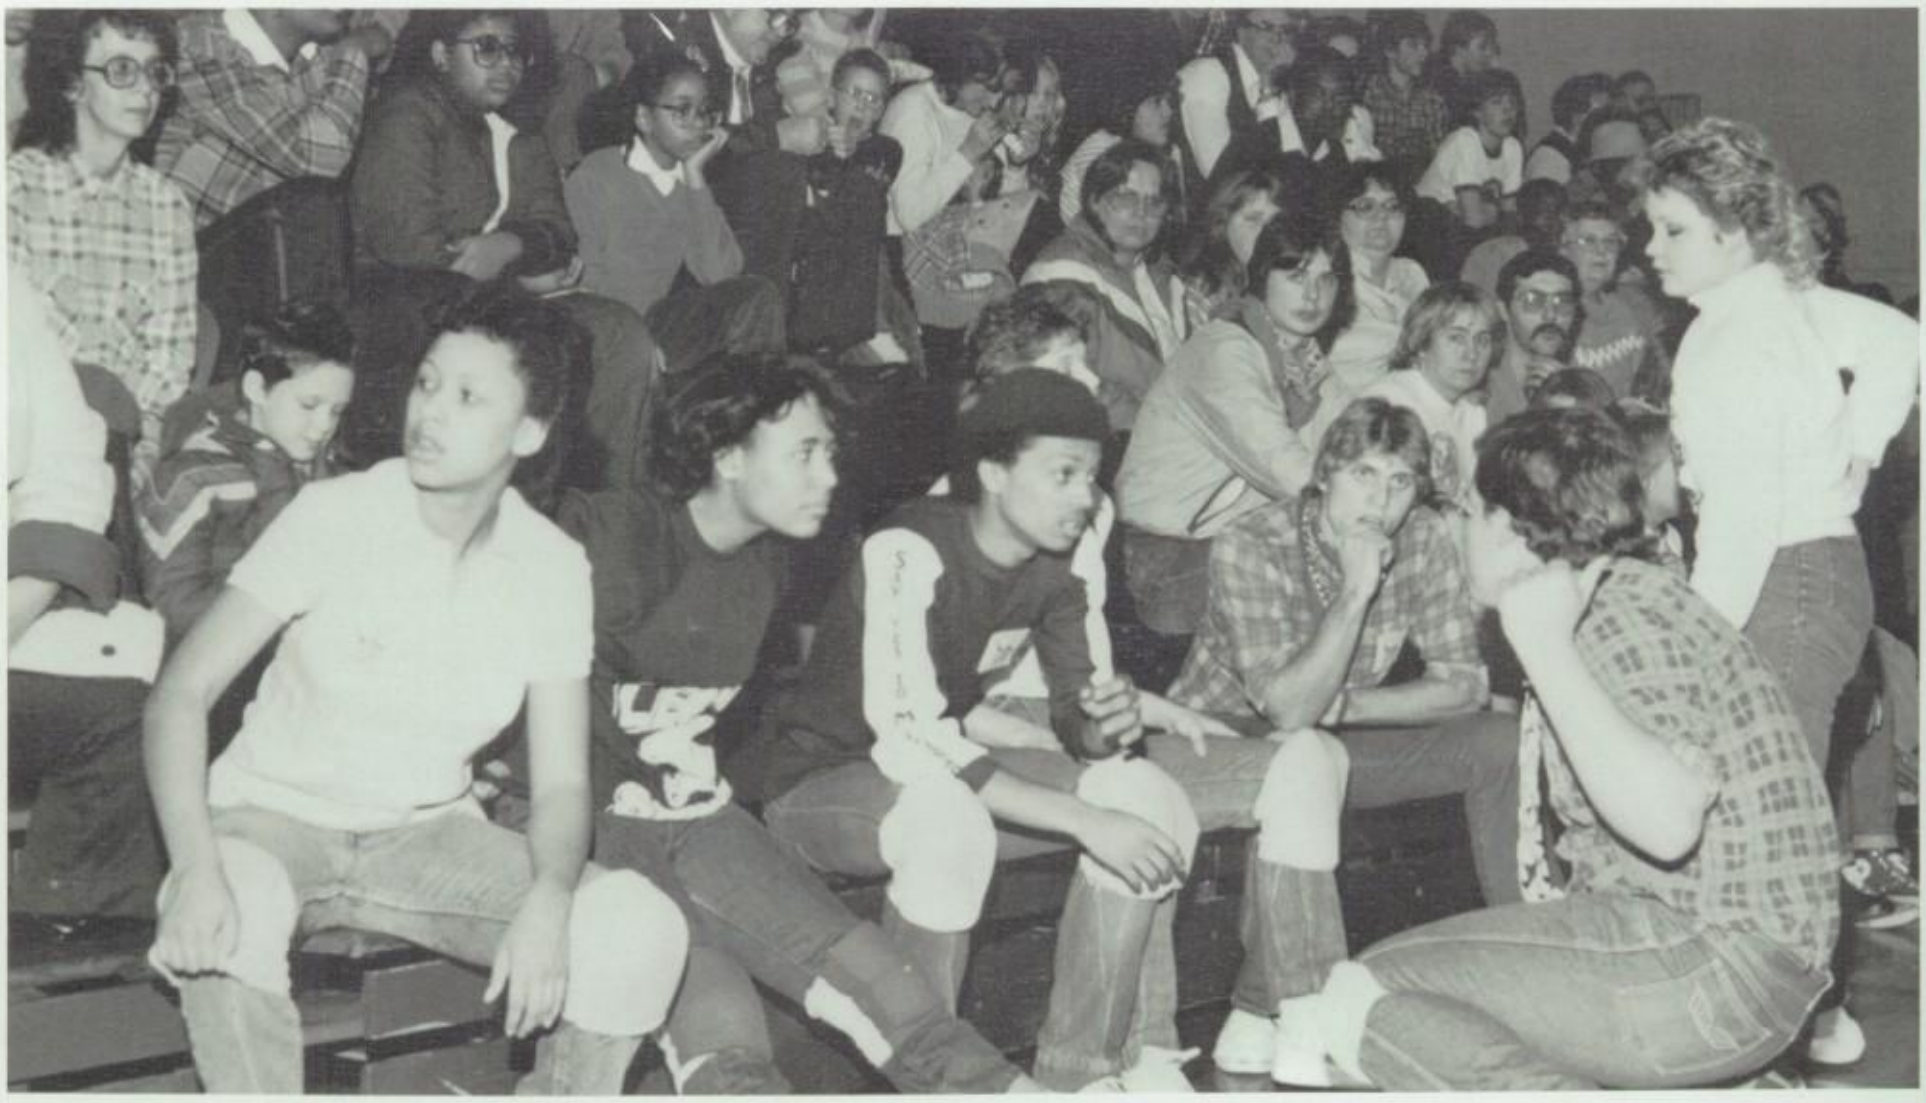


Paula (K. Stahlbush) finds her roommate's sweat stained t-shirt.



Aha! Another clue. Why is there blood on his jeans?

Donkey Basketball - Another Great Success

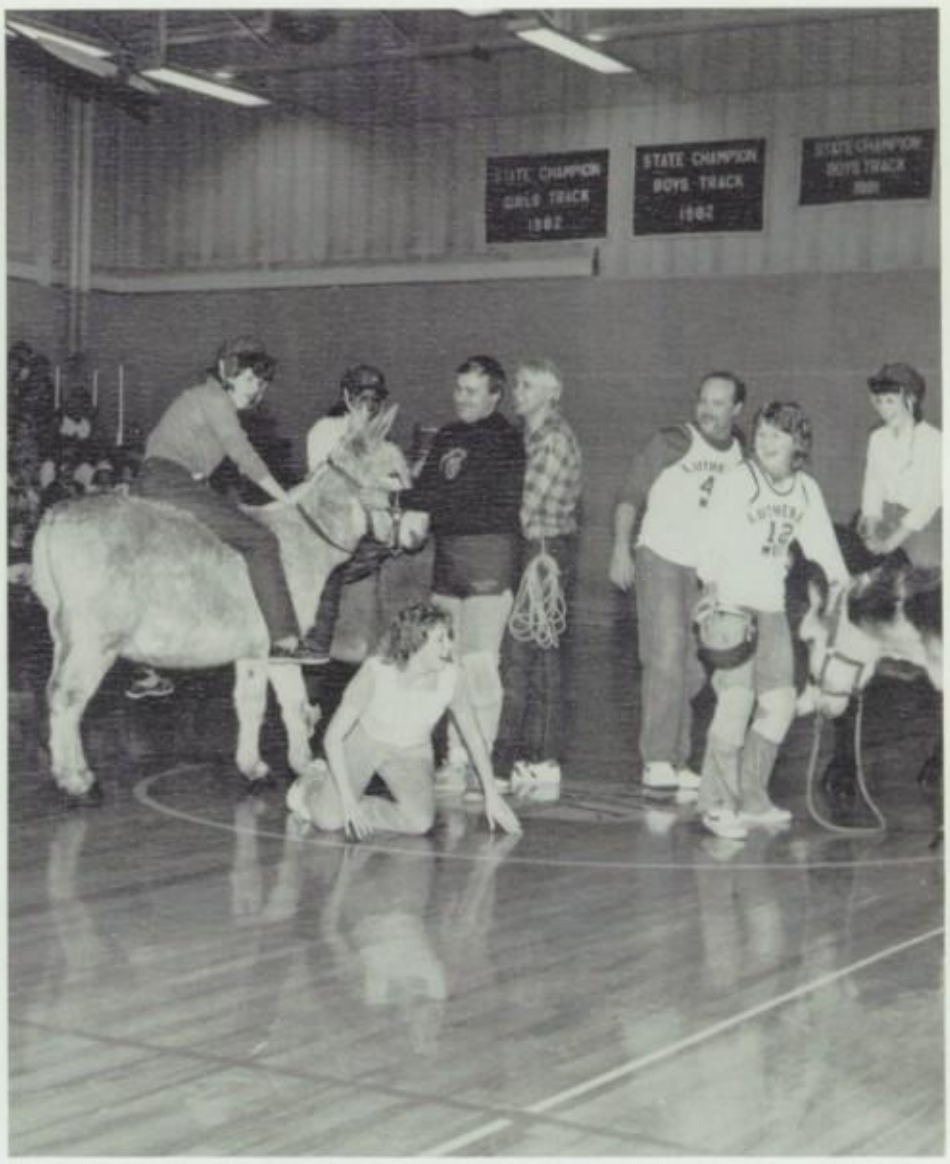


The Seniors Donkey Basketball Team gets some advice from a fellow teammate.

Getting to know his partner a little better is the sponsor of the Senior class, Mr. John Heil.

Who was that masked man anyway?

H. Habkirk finds out that Donkey Basketball isn't all fun and games.



The Half-Time Show even made Mr. Wiemer laugh.

Even on a donkey, J. Bourlier has a great shot.

Donkeys running out of control, riders of donkeys laying on the floor, and a lot of other things were just piling up here at West on the night of the annual Donkey Basketball game.

The first of three games that night was the Seniors vs. the Juniors. The game was slightly delayed by certain janitorial services which were executed by the players immediately following certain acts performed by the donkeys. The games M.V.P. was J. Bourlier because of her determined attempts at scoring. With victory in their grasp, the Seniors went on to win the Championship.

The second game of the evening was the Lutheran West Faculty vs. the Grade School All-Stars. In this game the Lutheran West team was playing smart, or at least they thought so, by bringing in their secret weapon the "MASKED MARVEL." He urged West's Faculty on to a victory by his great playing ability although he did seem to have difficulty staying on the donkey. Who was that masked man any way?

Coach Tuomi gives some advice to G. Baldner.

The Varsity Football Team who was young and inexperienced ended their season with a 1-8 record. A disappointing and a regrowing year. Although the team had seven returning letterman they could not make up for the inexperience and also the many injuries.

There was one big moment for the team and that was when the team Lutheran North, who in the past two years had beaten the Leopards.

There were new players on the team that won awards. Also two veterans received awards, such as T. Tuomi who was All-Conference at Linebacker and offenive tackle, and D. Barryhill who received Honorable-mention. Now that the season is over we should look forward to the 1984-85 football Season in hopes of a strong West Football future to come.

A group of "hardworking & dedicated young men." Yes, this is what the cheerleaders, fans, and the coaches must have been thinking at the end of the J.V. Football season. For not only had they improved vastly during the season but they finished the season with a perfect record at home.

This was a team. And when a team plays football many athletes share in the common goal. The goal of striving to play the best that they can. A goal to win. Also many athletes share in the rewards. The rewards of being named outstanding by their coaches. The outstanding Sophomores were T. Truax, R. Cathey, T. Spence, and R. Goins. The outstanding Frosh were S. Christian, D. Lowe, E. Oberling, and M. Schinesing. No matter what part a person played on the team they will be a team to watch in the future.

The "Ladie Leopards" was the slogan for this year girl's varsity basketball team. With a total of eleven players they proved to be a hard working, talented team. They started their season off by playing class "A" schools and other schools that were not in our conference. Even though they weren't victorious, the ladies worked well together as a team. There were seven veteran players from last year's team returning to play a big part in the team's successful season. Completing the roster were 4 new players each contributing their fair share. The coach, Mrs. Fluegge stated, "They were talented players who worked well as a whole — there were no superstars."

Despite early season losses, the 1983 J.V. team ended their season with a 9-9 record. Under the direction of new coach, Mary Brown, the team was able to exhibit a show of support and dedication. This year's team consisted of both freshmen and sophomores together providing an excellent season of basketball. Closing out the season was no problem for the Lady Leopards as their opponents bowed to the queens of the court.

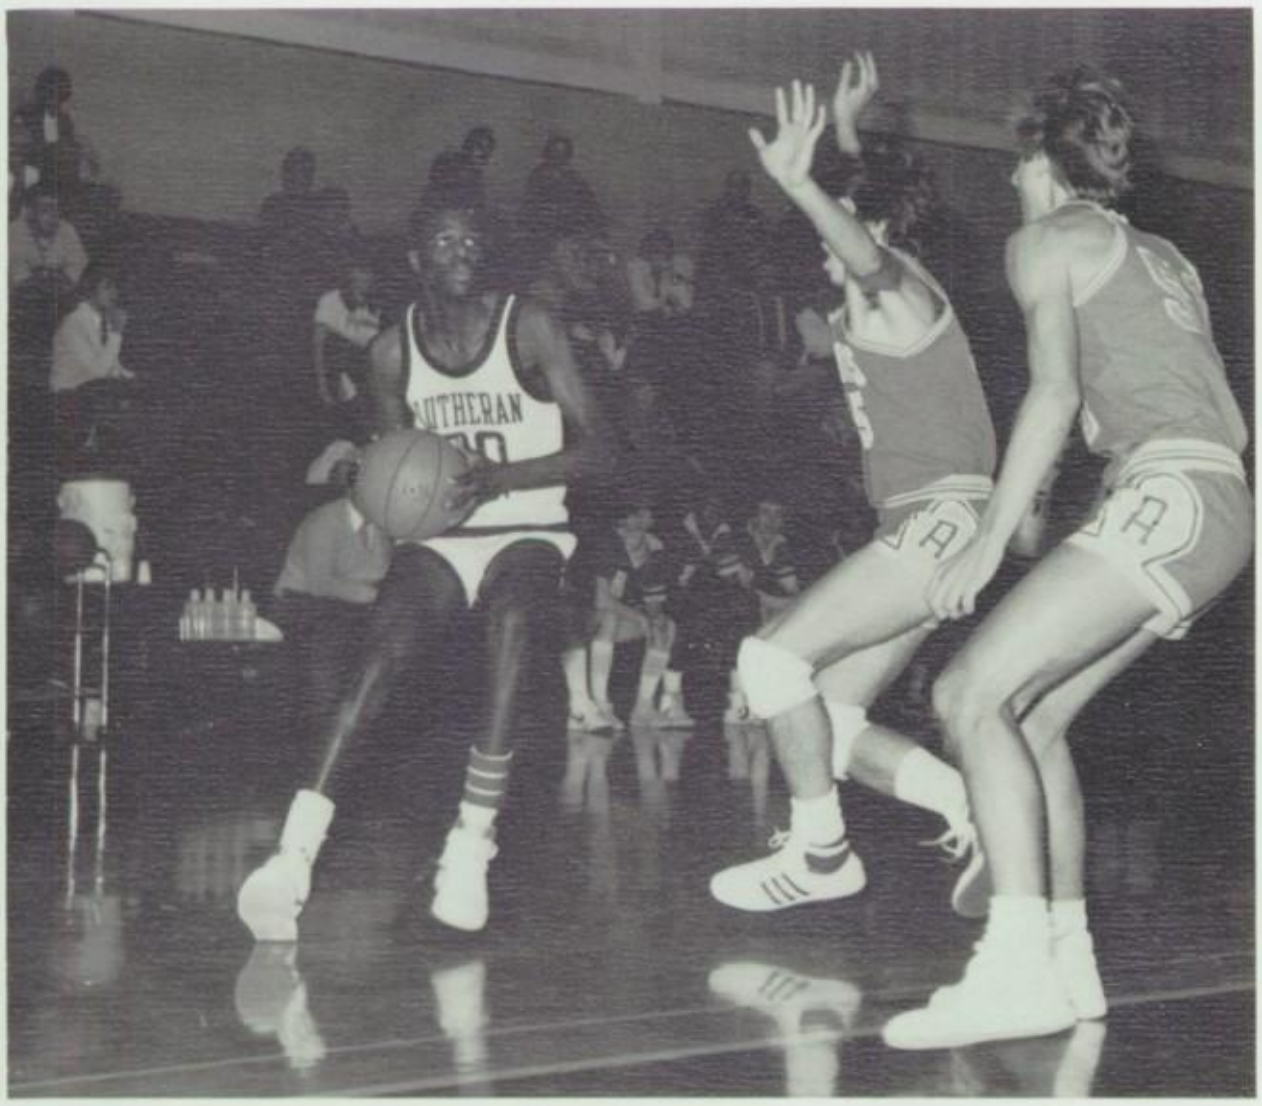
Looking for some help is R. Stringer.

Discussing the teams strategy is the Varsity Team.



Look at that tremendous concentration.

The basketball fans had plenty to watch and cheer about this year. The Varsity Basketball team under the direction of Coach Fluegge showed us what it was like to be a group of Christian athletes working towards a team goal rather than a group of individuals looking out for their own personal glory.

Each of the players complimented and supported each other as they played. Carl Strong lead his fellow teammates with his accurate shooting ability while Daryl James and Carl followed up with their skills at rebounding. A total of seven seniors contributed to the team effort this year as they completed a very successful season.

Strong J.V. and Frosh Teams Prove It

The J.V. and the Freshmen basketball teams had great seasons this year, and their records prove it too. Under the superb coaching skills of Mr. Wiemer, the Junior Varsity team came back from a slow start. They began their season with 4 losses but rallied to win their next 14 games in a row. They lost teir last game in overtime by only one point. The team can really be proud of their accomplishments.

Mr. Heil's Freshmen team didn't have it easy either. They had to compete with last year's team record, the best in 20 years, of 11-3. Well they did that and more competing the season with a record of 13-2, winning 12 straight in the middle of the season.

This is the type of playing talent we can look forward to in the years to come. It looks like the basketball fans here at West are in for plenty of excitement in the seasons ahead.

The team was lead by seniors T. Tuomi, M. Petrena, P. Johnson, and E. Cockrell as well as first year talent and returning wrestlers.

Three of the team took first in Conference and Tom Tuomi took first and Tim Spence took fourth in Regionals. Tom went on to become Lutheran West's first State Wrestling Champion, with an overall record of 44 wins (33 by pins) and no losses.

Bump, Set and Spike

Our two volleyball teams had a successful season this year. The Varsity had a rebuilding year after losing five seniors. Even though the team was very young they came through, with the help of Sarah Unger and Monica Vandevender who were high scorers, serving over 100 pts. at the line and seniors Kristi Gallant and Lenore Stephen, the best spiker spiking over 85%. The Varsity grew and developed ending the season with a 7 and 6 won/loss conference record.

The J.V. was a strong team this year considering their size. The quality shone with these few players as they bumped, set, and spiked through the season. By the coaching of Coach Fluegge they will be ready to be a part of the Varsity next year.

Both teams have learned to work with fewer players and proved that this factor does not make a difference when it comes to the outcome of the volleyball games.

VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY

Valparaiso is the largest Lutheran-affiliated university in the nation. Valparaiso values its Christian heritage, and seeks to cultivate an environment where higher education and commitment to Christian values and faith are totally compatible.

Valparaiso is a good size — about 4000 students. Although large enough to provide a broad range of academic programs, some not available at any other Lutheran college, it is orientated to small classes and individual guidance. Forty-four percent of the classes have 15 or fewer students, with professional teaching faculty members leading each class.

Social life at Valparaiso is exciting, too. There is always something to do, somewhere to go. One third of Valpo's students belong to one of the fourteen national fraternities or eight local sororities. These organizations represent only one dimension of the more than 150 co-curricular programs offered on campus. There are university sponsored concerts, carnivals, movies and special events such as Homecoming and Spring and Winter Weekends. Student life, however, is not confined to the campus itself. A stroll on the shores of Lake Michigan, or shopping in downtown Chicago, an hour away by car or bus, both provide opportunities to share moments with friends outside of campus boundaries.

Valparaiso has 30 departments offering 65 fields of study. If you're undecided about your academic goals, we offer assistance in identifying your career objectives. We encourage you to be what you want to be, and ought to be — at a place with the resources and people to help you get there.

Be a Success at West in whatever you do
and in the many places that God leads you in life.
Success can be measured in many ways.
If you have reached your main goal in life you are successful.
This main goal is to Proclaim Christ.
Pray that you can look back at your days at West and say,
"In everything I did, I Proclaimed Christ".

"You said it George, they really had alot of talent on the team this year, but just couldn't get things started, I guess."

"That's right! And let's not forget that J.V. organization. They didn't win any games this year, but what they gained in experience was well worth the effort.

"Right again George. Experience is the knowledge of the funda...."

The Lutheran West softball team took a giant step this year. Because of interest in playing this year throughout the conference but a decrease in playing time and experience, a J.V. softball team was set up. Just like any new team, its main purpose was to give experience to untried talent in order to give the varsity team something to draw from for next year's roster.

The varsity team had a rough time making the big numbers appear in the scoreboard for most of the season. And though they didn't have a winning season, they did manage to get two players on the all conference team and one on the honorable mention team.

Says Coach Wiemer, "We're learning and growing and improving each time we get together on the field. We look forward to having stronger teams and more support as the years go on and the girls get more playing experience."

D. Reed is prepared for anything coming her way.

M. Gruenhagen delivers her pitch.

E. Carter hurdles her last to victory.

This year's track season was a time of growth and endurance. The teams at the beginning of the season saw that the competition would be tough. So they had to be as well. Everyone had to grow into strong, mature members of a team that contributed to the overall effort put forth no matter the personal sacrifice. It was this type of teamwork that helped everyone be successful whatever event they performed in.

The boy's team this year became conference champions, winning all of their conference dual meets. The girl's team tied for second place. Both teams went to regional and state meets and made a good showing in each.

If the Shoe Fits...

Fairy tales always have a happy ending.

The spring musical for 1984 was the well-known and well loved fairy tale romance CINDERELLA, by Roger's and Hammerstein. Miss Finzel directed the production in the usual Lutheran West tradition of excellence. There were a few minor technical difficulties at times but the end result was a very enjoyable experience.

One of the highlights of this performance were the excellent musical accompaniment by West alumni Mr. Martin Jean, who was drafted to the position a few weeks before production and gave us the quality of music this show needed.

Another highlight was the appearance of the wicked stepmother and stepsisters, (Sarah Unger, Lisa Maisano and Kathy Schmidt.) As soon as they tromped on stage, you knew they were the ones to watch, and their level of performance never let up.

All in all the production was fun to watch and easy to enjoy. Thank-you all for another job well done.

The adorable stepmother and stepsisters.

Eager feet try on the slipper, to no avail.

The Prince (S. McCanham) and Cinderella (S. Terry) are caught in a quiet romantic moment.

The Fairy godmother (K. Stahlbush) contemplates the transformation she is about to perform.

In the royal dressing room the King (B. Sherman) and the Queen (L. Archbold) talk over their son's future.

THRILLER - 84

What do Kenny Rogers, Irene Cara and Michael Jackson have in common? Give up? Their songs were all performed at the spring concert of 1984.

Stripes, Ice Castles, and Raiders of the Lost Ark, to name a few, were movie themes reproduced for us by the concert band. Along with the music was a video presentation that gave the audience the visual excitement to go along with their auditory experience. To finish off the show with a real bang, literally, the band played the 1812 overture complete with cannon.

The mixed chorus brought in a change of pace with their version of what an orchestra sounds like and some homespun dancing during their rendition of a Kenny Roger's medley.

The concert choir was busy all evening long performing individual pieces as well as wonderfully choreographed musical extravaganzas such as Thriller and Flashdance. There is little a person could say to describe the evening except — "What a Feeling!"

Cleaning up the act.

The art exhibit in room 127 drew many interested people.

The Jackson 5 stunned their audience and made them flip their wigs.

A continuing commitment, that's what this symbol stands for.

The symbol of Aid Association for Lutherans may look like a mere group of dots to you. But to us, it represents something very important: a continuing commitment to our basic purpose. That purpose is "to enable Lutherans and their families to aid themselves and others."

We do this in a variety of ways. Every year, AAL benevolence programs help literally thousands of people on national, regional and local levels.

AAL insurance products also are expressions of our commitment. We help Lutherans and their families plan for their financial futures through life. health and retirement insurance.

So when you see this symbol, look beyond a mere configuration of dots. Think of a continuing commitment, first made in 1902. Think of AAL.
